MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Dear Zontians

Goodness another month gone already. Margie Brennan said to me yesterday "don't the meetings come around quickly?" and I have to agree. However this meeting we get to induct our newest member, Anthea Jennings-Hingston. We are thrilled to have her join us and, as we all know, she is a great worker and we look forward to many years of her Zonta service.

On Tuesday night we are having a guest speaker organised by Robin. He is an Osteopath from Kooralbyn who has been a great help with John's recovery so we will be interested to hear what he has to say.

The Spring Fashion Parade and High Tea was fabulous, despite some of us older members feeling the pain! The garden looked great, and we had a large crowd who really enjoyed themselves, and we made good money. There were lots of ladies who enjoyed walking around the garden and others, who knew the house in earlier years, keen to see how it has changed.

On Tuesday, 2nd Anne, Margie B, Michelle, Alice, Joan, Anthea and I attended the Cambodian dinner, a fundraiser for Rotary. It was very well attended and although at the end of the line the food was a bit depleted it was good to be able to support another community group and have fellowship with our own members.

Last meeting we registered all of our members on the D22 website so I will be interested to see who has logged on since then using their newly registered "user name".

The Nindooinah sale was interesting. As we expected it rained quite heavily, the power went off for a while and they delayed the sale until 1.30, which turned out well as just after that the rain disappeared and the sun shone. We had too much food as usual so perhaps next time we should cut down a little on our cooking efforts and just bring one thing each.

Look forward to seeing you all Tuesday night.

Yours in Zonta

Denise

DG Sandy reminded us in her newsletter that the UN came into force in 1945. Since 1948, the 24th October has been celebrated as UN day so let's talk about this at the meeting on Tuesday night.
